

CITY CENTER BISHOP RANCH OFFERINGS EXPAND AGAIN WITH A MEMBER-OWNED CREDIT UNION AND FULL SERVICE BAKERY CAFÉ LOCATION

Patelco Credit Union and Starter Bakery Set to Open in 2019 at New Lifestyle Center

San Ramon, Calif. – (January 1, 2019) – City Center Bishop Ranch officials today announced that Starter Bakery and Patelco Credit Union are expected to open in 2019.

Patelco is a not-for-profit member owned credit union dedicated to serving the financial health and well-being of its membership. With more than 330,000 members primarily in and around northern California, Patelco is committed to fueling hope and opportunity by offering personalized solutions, advice and expertise that empower members to achieve financial freedom. In a unique partnership, Starter Bakery, the popular Bay Area provider of freshly baked artisan pastries and breads, will open one of its first brick-and-mortar location within Patelco.

“Patelco Credit Union is thrilled to locate our new branch-bakery concept, in partnership with Starter Bakery, at City Center Bishop Ranch,” said Erin Mendez, CEO of Patelco Credit Union. “This new location will enable us to continue making a difference in the financial well-being of our members and the San Ramon community.”

“Starter Bakery will provide a relaxed setting to converse and enjoy fresh, handcrafted baked goods and beverages within the Patelco retail footprint,” said

Brian Wood, founder and owner of Starter Bakery. "Patelco is the perfect partner for one of our first retail locations thanks to our shared community and people-first values."

City Center Bishop Ranch was designed by the acclaimed Renzo Piano Building Workshop in collaboration with BAR Architects. Headquartered in Paris, France, Renzo Piano is an internationally renowned, Pritzker Prize-winning Italian architect. Among his many admired works are the California Academy of Sciences in San Francisco, The Shard in London, Europe's tallest skyscraper, and the Whitney Museum in New York City.
